CONDITIONS IN ALBERTA COLONIES NOT SO BAD

Special to The Tribune.
LEHI, Sept. 6.—David Smith came down from Canada yesterday. He reports that conditions in the Alberta colonies are not nearly so bad as they have been reported. Those who planted their wheat last fall will harvest from 5 to 25 bushels per acre; those who ploughed their land and planted this spring will average 15 bushels per acre at that time who "disked" their grain in this spring will harvest none at all.

Last year those who planted in the spring had much of their wheat frozen by early frosts, while those who planted the fall before had bounteous crops. These farmers have taught the farmers of this country, and as a result, hundreds of thousands of acres of grain have been planted this fall. This system will become a permanent practice.

Hard wheat is bringing a ready market at 50 cents per bushel, which makes a nice margin for farmers who planted fall wheat, especially when it is known that $2 per acre will cover all the expenses of ploughing, planting and harvesting the crop.

Mr. Smith has extensive cattle interests in Canada, but will devote 2000 acres of his ranch to wheat, planting 1000 acres each year. He follows fall planting and says there is more money to be made in wheat than in cattle, although beef on the hoof is now bringing from 25 to 4 cents.

Henry Anderson, 18 years old, and one of the brightest young men in Lehi, succumbed to an attack of typhoid pneumonia last night.

The wife of Mayor Roberts presented him with a fine boy last night. The Mayor also became a grandpa last week, a boy having been born to Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts.

Ten Thousand Sir Knights Parade

San Francisco Turns Out En Masse to Welcome Her Masonic Visitors.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 6.—Ten thousand Sir Knights marched for miles through the gaily decorated city streets today, inspired by the music of the forty bands and the cheers of thousands of spectators, who lined every foot of the way, crowded windows and doorways, and filled the grand stand and review-stands erected for the purpose.

The morning of the great parade broke before the announced starting time, and the various commanderies hastened to the assembly points of their respective divisions. The order of formation included twelve of these grand divisions.

Reviewed by Grand Master.
The parade started in the heart of the city, wound in and out of the downtown banking districts, thence for twelve blocks up the main thoroughfare of Market street to the broad and beautiful boulevard, Van Ness avenue, where a number of grand stands were erected. From one of these Most Eminent Grand Master Stoddard, with the officers and members of the grand encampment, reviewed the parade. From another stand close by Gov. George P. Jones, Mayor Eugene E. Schmitz, the most worshipful grand master, officers of the grand lodge, F. and A. M., the high priests and officers of the grand chapter of R. A. M., grand council, R. and S. L., also saw the procession pass in review.

Parade Moves Promptly.
The parading divisions moved promptly at 10 o'clock, the appointed time. It was headed by a squadron of mounted police, Sir Knight George W. Wittman, Chief of Police commanding, commander of the parade, E. Sir Charles L. Field, Grand Captain-General of California, and his chief of staff, E. Sir George D. Clark, the first division following. In this section were two carriages, the first carrying Most Eminent Sir Henry Bates Stoddard, grand master of the grand encampment of Knights Templars of the United States of America, and Most Eminent the Earl of Euston, grand master of the Great Priory of England and Wales. The latter was the center toward which all eyes were focused, the throngs seeming to be eager to catch a glimpse of the noble gentleman who represented King Edward of England.

Superbly Mounted.
In this division also was California commandery No. 1, each member of whom was mounted on a black charger. The appearance of the richly garbed knights and prancing steeds was the signal for enthusiastic cheers and hand-clapping all along the line, so that the applause seemed continuous along the three or more miles of march.

There were in the procession two other mounted commanderies, the De Witt Clinton of Virginia City, Nev., and the Corinthian Chasseurs of Philadelphia, making 1000 mounted men in all.

Utah Commanderies in Line.
From Utah there were two commanderies, Salt Lake No. 1 and Ogden No. 2, under command of Eminent Commander J. H. Epperson and Eminent Commander C. F. Jennings.

The Virginia City commandery of Virginia City, Nev., mounted, was the last commandery in the procession and acted as rear guard. It was commanded by Eminent Commander R. A. Patty, Generalissimo R. S. Mechem and Capt. Gen. F. C. Lord.

Fell Dead While Marching.
Joseph Leath, a member of Coeur d'Alene commandery, Knoxville, dropped dead during the parade. His commandery had reached Van Ness avenue, and he had just stepped from his carriage to let another man take his place. He had marched only a few feet when he fell to the street dead.

Streets Were Thronged.
From careful reports gathered by the California Promotion company, it is estimated that about 125,000 strangers were in the city today to witness and participate in the Knights Templars parade. This number includes 16,000 Knights Templars and their ladies and over 20,000 visitors from outside of California.

Sale Rapidly Increasing.
Mi-o-na, the Dyspepsia Remedy, Has Cured Hundreds of F. C. Schramm's Customers.

One of the greatest successes in the sale of a medicine has been achieved by Mi-o-na, the dyspepsia remedy, and its sale is increasing so rapidly that F. C. Schramm, the popular druggist, has had hard work to keep a stock on hand.

Mi-o-na is in the form of small tablets, and is sold in a metal box especially designed for convenience in carrying the medicine in the pocket or purse. It is pleasant to take, costs but 50c, gives quick relief and makes lasting cures.

This remedy has been so uniformly successful and made so many remarkable cures that F. C. Schramm will in future sell Mi-o-na under a positive guarantee or refund the money if it should not cure. No other dyspepsia medicine ever had a larger enough percentage of cures so that it could be sold in this manner. A guarantee like this speaks volumes for the merit of the remedy.

There is no time like the present to do a thing that ought to be done. If any one has dyspepsia, today is the best time to begin curing it.

Oldsmobile

The Road Efficiency of the Oldsmobile
The road efficiency is the vital point to consider in purchasing an automobile.

The measure of road efficiency is the actual horse-power transmitted to the wheels, divided by the weight of the machine.

The Oldsmobile Runabout has a 5x6 cylinder and delivers to the wheels 7 actual horse-power. It weighs 1,100 lbs., making the horse-power per 100 weight .636.

The road efficiency is reduced as the weight of the machine is increased.

Careful investigation of these points will prove to you that the Oldsmobile Runabout has the highest road efficiency of any runabout made—and at the lowest price.

Its simplicity and strength are the result of 20 years experience in gas engine building.

Its reliability is proven. It is the only Runabout that has been driven across the American continent; in the English Reliability Trials (Sept. '03) it took every prize offered, and its competitors were the best known American and foreign makes. It is the "best thing on wheels."

Send for free catalog telling about its increased power, speed and size, etc. Shows our new patterns. Touring Runabout, $750.00; Light Tonneau, $950.00; Oldsmobile Delivery Wagon, $850.00.
